

Overview – PDA Young Adult Volunteer Program at Ferncliff

Ferncliff Camp and Conference Center, Little Rock, AR is collaborating with PDA to offer a Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) experience to one or two applicants each year. The PC(USA) denomination-wide YAV program is described this way on the denominational website:

The Young Adult Volunteer program is a one-year service opportunity for young adults from 19 to 30 years old. YAVs live in Christian community, deepening and developing their faith while serving in communities of need. The YAV program has sites around the United States and around the world, and YAVs serve for one academic year, August - July.

Volunteers are placed in community agencies or local churches, with jobs depending on the needs of partners and the skills of the Young Adult Volunteer. YAVs are exposed to some of the hardest problems in the world – poverty, violence and reconciliation, and sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ – while living and reflecting with other volunteers on the meaning and motivation of their Christian faith.

Those interested in applying for or learning about the program can access information at <http://www.presbyterianmission.org/ministries/yav/>
